

The availability request is not binding and does not constitute a contract for either the Client or Borgo Baccile by Vini Fantini Resort & Winery. The booking request represents an Order Form and, therefore, is binding for the Client but is not binding for Borgo Baccile, which party reserves the right not to accept the booking. The booking confirmation that Borgo Baccile sends to the Client is binding for both parties and constitutes completion of the booking contract. At this point Borgo Baccile undertakes to send an email confirming the booking. All reservations must be reconfirmed via email by accepting the cancellation conditions of the facility. This regulation is an integral part of the booking and is established to guarantee uniform, orderly and peaceful use of the facility. It has a contractual nature between Borgo Baccile and the guest, therefore, the request to stay and the acceptance of such request implies full acceptance of this regulation. Each guest undertakes to observe it and for everything not explicitly mentioned, reference is made to the regulations in force, to the good taste and common sense of each person in the interest of all, to guarantee the safety of management and public order. The structure is the residence of many guests who have decided to stay there, therefore we ask you to respect it and treat it with care as you would with your own home. Failure to comply with one or more points of this regulation and the rules contained therein may lead to the termination of the contract with related economic and legal consequences arising. The Management, as required by current laws, has the right to expel without notice anyone who does not respect the regulation or behaves in a way that causes damage or disturbance. Our staff will be at the complete disposal of guests for any need, in order to make their stay as pleasant as possible.
